

Come & Sing

Duruflé and Fauré Requiem

accompanied by Guildford Symphony Orchestra

Conductor - Matthew Jelf
Baritone – Emiliano Barragán-Géant
Mezzo Soprano – Helen Stanley

Saturday 11th June 2011
Holy Trinity Church, High Street, Guildford

This will be an intense but thrilling and rewarding day for everyone involved! It's a chance to come along and perform two great choral masterpieces with full symphonic forces in a wonderful venue in the heart of Guildford. How could you resist!?

The £18 participation fee for singers includes 4.5 hours of rehearsal on the day (2.5 hours for the Duruflé, 2 hours for the Fauré), as well as the hire charges for both vocal scores. It is compulsory for participants to use the scores provided so that there is consistency with bar numbers and page numbers in rehearsal!

The rehearsal schedule for the day will be:

- 10.00-10.30 Singers to arrive promptly at Holy Trinity to register and collect music
- 10.30-13.00 Rehearsal of the Duruflé Requiem (choir + piano)
- 13:00-13.30 LUNCH BREAK (suggest singers bring a packed lunch)
- 13:30-14:15 Rehearsal of the Fauré Requiem (choir + piano)
- 14.15-14.30 Orchestra set up
- 14.30-15:30 Chorus and orchestra rehearsal of the Fauré Requiem
- 15:30-15:45 Short break
- 15.45-17:00 Chorus and orchestra rehearsal of the Duruflé Requiem
- 17:00-17:15 Chorus and orchestra players not involved in solo rehearsals to leave
- 17:15-17:45 Rehearsal with soloists and relevant orchestral players
- 17:45-19:15 DINNER BREAK
- 19:30-21:30 Concert

The maximum number of singers that can be accommodated is 100 so please do book early to avoid disappointment! Please bring along as many audience supporters as possible! This really will be a 2011 concert opportunity not to be missed, whether you're singing or listening!
