Director: Patrick Allies

SINGING WORKSHOP

Spanish Music from the Golden Age

VICTORIA - LOBO - VIVANCO - GUERRERO - ROGIER - PADILLA

Saturday April 6th 2013 (10.30am for 11am start till 4.30pm)

St James', Sussex Gardens, W2 3UD (near Lancaster Gate and Paddington tube)

The day will begin at 10.30am with registration for an 11am start, and will be divided into three sessions, with breaks at regular intervals including a longer pause at lunchtime. Tea and coffee will be available free of charge. Singers will be guided through music from the period after which Siglo de Oro is named: sixteenth-century Spain, resulting in an informal performance at the end of the day. The repertoire, listed below, will range from works by famous composers Victoria and Guerrero to unpublished works by the more obscure Vivanco and Rogier.

Ave Maria a 8 - Tomas Luis de Victoria

Versa est in luctum a 6 - Alonso Lobo

Ave Virgo sanctissima a 5 - Francisco Guerrero

O Rex gloriae a 6 - Sebastian de Vivanco

Stabat Mater a 4 - Juan Gutierrez de Padilla

Caligaverunt oculi mei a 6 - Phillippe Rogier

The workshop will be led by Patrick Allies, choirmaster and graduate in Choral Studies from Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. Patrick will be assisted by members of early music vocal ensemble Siglo de Oro, who will lead each section of the assembled choir.
