LED BY THE BACH CHOIR'S MUSICAL DIRECTOR DAVID HILL & VOICE COACH HILARY JONES

SATURDAY 28TH FEBRUARY 2015

10AM-4PM

THE WAREHOUSE, 13 THEED STREET, LONDON SE1 8ST

OVERVIEW

A day of CPD for primary and secondary music teachers/specialists in leading singing activities and in forming and developing school choirs.

The training will include:

Development of your choral leadership skills

Developing the singing abilities of children

Basic conducting skills

Sharing an enthusiasm for singing
so you can lead by example

Techniques for improving co-operation and listening skills

Hands-on experience in conducting a talented group of singers from The Bach Choir

Teachers who complete this course will be able to:

Use their own voices with confidence

Lead groups of children to sing with enjoyment

Enhance children's listening skills

Select appropriate repertoire

Use conducting skills effectively

Use leadership skills to inspire and control rehearsals

Achieve a musical performance

David Hill is a conductor renowned for his musicianship across an extensive range of repertoire.

"I learnt a great deal from the conducting session and I know it will impact upon and improve my future practice."
